

TROOPS HELD
READY TODAY
IN MEXICOGovernment Determined to Suppress Pro-
Catholics

Mexico City, July 30.—(AP)—In an address to a delegation of the Confederation of Labor which informed him that the labor organization supported his religious policy, President Calles replied:

"I believe we have reached the point when the situation is to be cleared up once for all time. We are going to see whether revolution has triumphed over reaction or whether the triumph of the Mexican revolution has been merely ephemeral."

"My government has been deeply occupied in resolving grave national problems, such as adjusting the budget, spreading public education, industrial and agricultural development of the country, organization of the army and various social and economic problems. Preoccupied by these enormous tasks, the government had almost forgotten the clerical element when, precisely at the most difficult moment of my administration, the Catholic clergy, in all bad faith and treachery, threw its challenge to the government of this republic."

Blames Church Interference
"This challenge was made just at a time when questions were arising of an international character which were defining whether Mexico was a sovereign country or not. (The President presumably was referring to the oil land legislation.)

"At such a time, the clergy threw its challenge to the government, making declarations to the reactionary press of the capital that they did not recognize the general constitution of the Mexican republic and ordering their supporters to disobey and fight the constitution."

"The clergy stated in its declaration that the religious clauses in the constitution were a hindrance to Mexico, an abuse and should not be obeyed. In the face of this attitude, the government had to fight, according to law and with right and justice, this high handed attitude of the clergy. The result of this strife you already know. We are seeing it through. It is a struggle of darkness against light."

"I am absolutely certain that the revolutionary movement is developing for the good of the republic. (The President was referring to the revolutionary movement which began in 1910 and of which the present government is the outcome, and especially for the working classes.)

"Definite triumph will be for us."

Mexico City, July 30.—(AP)—Federal troops are known to be in readiness for any emergency that may arise through the enforcement of the religious restrictions. At the department of the interior today it was said that "all necessary measures" were being taken to suppress possible disorders.

It was added that the government "is firmly decided to abate, once for all time any resistance to enforcement of the constitution which may be offered by the unpatriotic work of Catholic or any other agitators."

Ricardo Trevino of the Confederation of Labor has sent cablegrams to all labor organizations in the United States, Latin America, Great Britain, France and Spain, announcing that Mexican labor is supporting President Calles and soliciting a sympathetic understanding of labor throughout the world.

Threaten Church Dignitaries.
The government is still considering the question whether it will file formal complaints against the archbishops and bishops who signed the recent pastoral letter suspending church services by priests. In well informed quarters, the belief is expressed that if the prelates are summoned, it will be on a charge of inciting the people to disorder.

The government agents continued today their investigation of the files and records in the offices of the league. They have turned over to the police the membership list of the league as well as lists of members of other Catholic organizations.

The Confederation of Labor through its secretary general, announced to union workers that if any industrial or commercial establishment supports the league for defense of religious liberty's economic boycott, they will take the necessary steps to control the establishment until the owners or managers cease supporting it.

Marchers are Barefoot.

Special dispatches from Guadalajara tell of great processions of Catholic men, women and children who marched barefoot as evidence of sorrow and penitence through the streets to a shrine several miles in the suburbs where special services were conducted and prayers were offered for a solution of the religious situation.

OFFER LAST DEVOTIONS.

Mexico City, July 30.—(AP)—Catholics throughout Mexico today offered up devotions for the last time under the leadership of their priests before the government's new religious regulations go into effect tomorrow.

ARMS EMBARGO
ON MEXICO MAY BE TAKEN OFFWashington Hesitates
While Mexico is so
Stirred

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—Removal of the embargo which forbids shipment of arms into Mexico is under consideration here and President Coolidge will be asked to decide whether such a step shall be taken.

There are indications that some time may elapse before a decision is made. In the meantime the state department refuses to disclose its views on the subject, meeting all inquiries with the statement that the embargo still is in effect.

Extreme caution has resulted from the fact that removal of the restrictions has come up for decision at a time when the situation in Mexico is perhaps as tense as when the embargo was proclaimed in 1924 and now is complicated by religious issues between the government and churches of that country.

It is known however, that some officials of the Washington government, despite announcement that Mexican troops are being held in readiness for action, confidently believe the situation will quickly moderate.

New Rates Blow at Mid-West Millers

Chicago, July 30.—(AP)—Rate revisions which may influence the entire structure of the flour milling industry between the Mississippi valley states and the Atlantic seaboard are under consideration by six trunk line railroads linking Minneapolis and Chicago.

As a result of a reduction, effective July 27, of six cents a hundred pounds on all rail shipments of grain and flour from the northwest termini of the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad to the eastern seaboard, six competing lines arranged a meeting here today to discuss similar reductions.

Grain exchanges and millers' organizations throughout the middle west already are preparing to resist the proposed rate revisions before the interstate commerce commission.

MANY BANKERS AT LOWDEN FARM FOR DAY'S INSPECTION

Dixon Banks are All Represented at Meeting at Oregon

Oregon, Ill., July 30.—(AP)—Four hundred on more Illinois bankers and perhaps a hundred others learned about the practical side of farming today as the guests of Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, on his 4,500-acre Shinnissippi farm here.

Although among the former governor's guests were Leut. Gov. F. E. Sterling and L. L. Emmerson, Secretary of State of Illinois, there was no time of politics in the meeting.

Col. Lowden, dean H. W. Mumford, of the College of Agriculture of the University of Illinois and other university experts, D. H. Otis of Chapman, director of the agricultural commission of the American Bankers' Association and William Givler, cashier of the First National Bank of Naperville, who is chairman of the agricultural relations committee of the Illinois Bankers' Association were among speakers.

The Illinois Bankers' Association arranged the outing for a practical demonstration for the financiers who lend money on farm lands.

A rainy morning kept down the attendance, most of the guests coming by motor car.

Former Governor Lowden's talk at luncheon dealt with the co-operatives of Denmark, from a tour of which he recently returned. The visitors earlier had visited the tenant farms, the dairy barns and the fields, hearing practical talks on crops and soil fertility from the farmers themselves.

Scores of bankers from the western and southern parts of the state passed through Dixon this morning over the various state highways which center here en route to form a tour of the Shinnissippi farms near Oregon, where this afternoon a meeting of the State Bankers' Assn. is in progress. The purpose of the meeting is to enable the bankers to obtain first hand information of agricultural problems, and to hear an address by Mr. Lowden, who has just returned from a visit in Europe, during which he devoted most of his time to observation of agricultural conditions there and their relation to the financial interest. All of the Dixon bankers are represented at the meeting, the presidents, cashiers and other officers of each being in attendance.

Oregon, Ill.—(AP)—Several hundred members of the Illinois Bankers' Association, intent upon learning at first hand just what agriculture needs, the better to formulate their policy toward farm relief proposals, will meet on the 4,500-acre farm of Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, here.

Mr. Lowden, just back from a tour of Europe to study agricultural conditions, will give the bankers the benefit of "Lessons from European Agriculture."

Farmers to Address Them
His vast estate really is divided into eleven farm units, and two of the farmers who rent land from him will address the bankers, as will his general superintendent.

The Lowden farm, "Shinnissippi," will afford the bankers an opportunity to get much first hand evidence of the means of operating agricultural property, enriching it by rotation of crops and fertilizers, and gathering returns by keeping dairy herds.

His Herd of 600
Mr. Lowden operates his own limestone quarry and kiln, farms in scientific manner, and the great farm is stocked with a herd of 600 Moisten-Friesian dairy cows.

H. W. Mumford, dean of the college of agriculture, University of Illinois; D. H. Otis, director of the agricultural committee of the American Bankers' Association, and several scientific farmers and professors in the state university will address the Illinois bankers.

Carlsons Return from Vacation Trip in West

The paragon family of the Methodist Episcopal Church have returned from a four weeks touring vacation trip through the mountains and other parts of the west. They left Dixon on June 29 and returned July 29 having motored over 3,000 miles. The beautiful scenes of the snow-capped mountains, the pictures made by the hand of nature in the rocks, hills and valleys, and the wide prairies of the west were all enjoyed. The trip included Denver, the mountain tops, Cheyenne, Wyo., Ft. Morgan, Colo., Holdrege, Neb., where Rev. Carlson's mother is buried, Stromsburg, Neb., and Albert City, Iowa, where Rev. Carlson had been pastor for several years.

The family returns well and refreshed with a good coat of tan from the hot sun and the strong winds. During the absence of the pastor from the church, Rev. L. E. Coleman has supplied the pulpit. He was a former school mate of the pastor. Next Sunday August 1, Rev. Carlson will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist Church and a large crowd will be present to greet and welcome the pastor and family back home.

Mrs. Barry Stewart submitted to a serious operation at the Dixon public hospital Wednesday, from the effects of which she is recovering satisfactorily.

TRIGGER MAN IN MELLETT MURDER
DECLARED KNOWN

Slater Knows Movements of Slayer for Several Days

Canton, O., July 30.—(AP)—Country wide search was begun today for Patrick Eugene McDermott, 28, Cleveland, wanted as a principal in the killing of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher.

Detective Ora Slater, heading the Stark County investigation, refused to designate McDermott as the man sought as the "trigger man."

Pictures of McDermott are to be broadcast throughout the country today to all police stations and detective agencies, and to all news picture services. The pictures are to be released at 1 o'clock this afternoon, Slater said.

Canton, O., July 30.—(AP)—The official investigator into the murder of Don R. Mellett, publisher of the Canton Daily News, believe they have established the identity of "the trigger man."

Within a few hours a nation-wide search will be under way for the man who dropped out of sight immediately after Mellett was assassinated early on July 15.

New evidence received yesterday by the investigators said, fitted in precisely with previous information.

Detective Slater in charge of the investigation, declared the movements of the slayer for several days prior to the shooting are known.

JAP FLOODS DROWN
HUNDREDS AND 8000
HOUSES SUBMERGED400 Dead—Disease Follows
Great Flood Disaster

Tokio, July 30.—(AP)—The toll of dead and missing in the terrific floods which have ravaged Ni Igita prefecture on the west coast of the main island of Japan was placed at 400 today, as numerous corps of relief workers entered the stricken district.

Already disease is reported to have followed in the wake of the waters of the Shinano river adding to the misery of the population.

Seventy bodies have been recovered in the village of Tochio alone, this place having borne the brunt of the disaster. One thousand and five hundred houses were washed away here.

In the whole flooded area, about 8,000 houses were submerged while thousands of acres of rice were flooded and the crops destroyed.

WIDESPREAD TRAGEDY

Tokio, July 30.—(AP)—The meager news that trickles from the flood in Ni Igita Province reveals a terrific toll in death and destruction. Latest reports fix the dead, injured and missing at about 400 and the damage to property at 10,000,000 yen.

The village of Tochio was hardest hit of all the communities. At this place 1,500 houses were demolished and many drowned. In the entire flooded area some 8,000 houses were submerged. Several thousand acres of rice fields were destroyed.

Other floods are reported in Akita and Yonezawa, in north Japan but they are not believed to be serious in comparison with those in Ni Igita across the island from Tokio.

Communications with the stricken district are broken down and it is only with difficulty that information is obtained.

DOCTORS ENJOYED
SPLENDID SESSION
AT LOWELL PARKMany Interesting Talks by Members of the Profession

About one hundred fifty doctors, nurses and ladies attended the annual joint Medical Meeting and picnic given by Lee and Ogle Counties Medical Societies at Lowell Park, Thursday afternoon. As an introduction to the program Gladys Forester, Donna Chapman and Myrtle Bishop sang a number of the late popular songs which were very much enjoyed by the audience. Dr. Phillip H. Kreuschner of Chicago gave a very interesting talk on "Backache" and his lecture was discussed by several of the visiting doctors. Dr. Channing W. Barrett of Chicago read a very interesting paper on "Uterine Fibroids, from the Standpoint of the Pathologist." Dr. John E. Tuile of Rockford gave a fine talk on the "Various Types of Goiters" with a summary of the latest ideas in treatment and Dr. W. B. Peck of Freeport gave a most interesting description of the various medical clinics which he had attended in Europe this summer with the members of the Inter-state Medical Association. He described the types of goitre which are so prevalent in Switzerland and gave a vivid description of some remarkable surgical work done on amputated arms in Munich, Germany, in which an artificial forearm and hand were made to work with the same strength and precision as that of a normal arm—even to the grip of the fingers. This talk was very interesting to all present.

A delightful dinner was prepared by Mrs. I. S. Graybill and was served on the lawn adjacent to the Lowell Park Lodge.

Doctors attended from all over the northwestern part of Illinois, coming from as far as Peoria, La Salle, Streator, Oglesby, Clinton, Ia., Fulton, Savanna, Freeport, Rockford, Sycamore and DeKalb.

This annual Medical Meeting has become the most interesting and best enjoyed meeting in this part of the country.

MRS. McPHERSON TO GET "SHOW DOWN"
SHE IS DEMANDINGNew and Startling Developments Promised
Grand Jury

Los Angeles, Calif., July 30.—(AP)—Mrs. Almee Sempie McPherson's demand for a "showdown" in the investigation of her disappearance case has been granted. District Attorney Keyes declares the demand will be met with presentation of "new and startling" evidence before the grand jury which reconvenes next Tuesday.

The grand jury also will be asked to consider whether any of the witnesses at the previous session including the Los Angeles pastor, were guilty of perjury.

Temple Leaders Loyal

Mrs. McPherson is supported in her demand for a complete investigation of her 35 day absence from Angelus Temple of which she is pastor, by temple leaders. Her followers maintain the pastor was kidnapped at Ocean Beach, May 18, taken to Mexico and held for ransom by two men and a woman and that she finally escaped and after hiking across the desert, reappeared at Agua Prieta, across the border from Douglas, Ariz. Officials here are skeptical and have been looking into reports that for part of the time at least, the pastor may have been in Carmel, an art colony near Monterey.

Destruction of Public Property by Vandals
Destruction of public property and defacing of same, shows at the least, a disregard for the comfort and rights of others. Rest rooms for the public are a great boon to the travelers and residents of cities as well but people who use these conveniences should at least try to leave them in the same orderly and clean condition as they find them. The writing of names on public property shows a lack of propriety, and the destruction of furniture in such a place is positive vandalism and does not speak well for the intellectual capacity of the wrong doer.

Thieves Raid Stores in Egan, Ogle County
Oregon, July 29.—Thieves raided two general stores at Egan, north of Leaf River, last night, and carried off a small quantity of merchandise in a Chevrolet coupe which they stole from a garage in the rear of one of the stores.

A report of the theft was made to Sheriff S. N. Dodson early today and he went to the village to investigate but found few clues.

A description of the car was broadcast in an effort to apprehend the thieves.

TEN-YEAR-OLD OREGON BOY IS DROWNED WHEN HE SLIPS OFF
SANDBAR AT RAILWAY BRIDGE

Edward Zittle Victim of Tragedy in Ogle Co. Seat Thurs.

Edward Zittle, aged 10, whose father is dead, and who had been making his home with his grandmother, Mrs. Moore of Oregon, lost his life in Rock River at about 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon while in wading with two playmates; when he slipped off a sand bar near the railroad bridge and sank.

The boys had been wading for some time, according to evidence introduced at the inquest conducted by Coroner J. C. Atkins of Forreston this morning, when suddenly little Edward slipped off the bar.

His companions gave the alarm at once and a search for the body was immediately instituted, it being recovered about eight rods from the shore by means of a big fishing seine.

Funeral services for the little victim of the tragedy will be held at his grandmother's home Sunday afternoon.

RAILROADS PLAN A BIG MERGER WITH ECONOMY AS OBJECTNew York Central And
Big Four Ask Lease
Permissions

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—The New York Central applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission today for authority to acquire control by 99 year lease the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, known as the Big Four Railroad.

Permission also was asked to acquire by lease the Michigan Central and the Chicago, Kalamazoo and Saginaw Railroad.

In another application the Big Four requested permission to acquire by lease the Cincinnati, Northern and the Evansville, Indianapolis and Terre Haute. These roads now are operated as part of the Big Four system.

The arrangement proposed, the applications said, would result in operating economies, increased efficiency and improved service.

The Big Four has a mileage of 2,398 in Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan and Missouri.

The New York Central already owns 4,881 miles of Big Four preferred stock with a par value of $5,468,100 or 84.64 percent of the total outstanding, and 429,411 shares of common with a par value of $42,941,100 or 91.308 percent of the total.

The Michigan Central operates 1,862 miles of line in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, New York and Canada. The New York Central owns 185,762 shares of the capital stock with a par value of $18,576,200 or 99.145 percent of the total.

The Chicago, Kalamazoo & Saginaw runs 46 miles in Michigan. The New York Central owns 40 percent of its capital stock and the Michigan Central 60 percent. The Big Four owns 97 percent of the capital stock of the Cincinnati Northern which has a mileage of 244 in Ohio and Michigan and all the capital stock of the Evansville & Terre Haute which operate 146 miles in Indiana.

Coolidge Visitor
Indicates He Will Be Candidate Again

Paul Smith's, N. Y., July 30.—(AP)—Dinner has to wait in the summer White House as well as anywhere else in the fishing season.

Mrs. Coolidge had to keep dinner waiting an hour for her husband yesterday and even at that the President expressed regret at leaving a pond on the former William Rockefeller estate while the trout were biting so well. He and his secret service companions returned after dark with a large catch.

Mr. Child Talks

Richard Washburn Child, former ambassador to Italy, enjoyed a little fishing trip with the President before leaving camp where he had been a guest since Tuesday.

In a talk with newspaper men, the former ambassador said the country seemed to be generally assuming that Mr. Coolidge would be a presidential candidate in 1928. He characterized Mr. Coolidge as a conservative republican whose belief in a decentralized government was even stronger than that of an old time Jeffersonian democrat.

January, 1930 Next
U. S. Census Date

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—Despite some dissatisfaction with the mid-winter date for taking the decennial population census, the 1930 enumeration will proceed on the same method and at the same time of the year as the 1920 count.

Announcing this decision today, census bureau officials said that January is a much more convenient month that July for obtaining farm statistics.

Tabulation and compilation will be speeded greatly in 1930, they said, because of improvements in the tabulating, punching and sorting machines over 1920.

MOORE TELLS DONATORS TO
SMITH FUNDStudebaker and Copley
Among Big Donators
To Primary

Chicago, July 30.—(AP)—Allen F. Moore, campaign manager for Frank L. Smith, successful candidate in the Illinois senatorial primary, decided today to furnish the senate campaign funds committee the names of all contributors to the Smith political fund.

Moore disclosed that Clement Studebaker of South Bend, Ind., had contributed $20,000 and former Representative Ida C. Copley of Aurora, Ill., had given $25,000 in two installments.

Other contributors included Daniel Schuyler, Chicago attorney $2,500; Eugene Pike, $1,000; Judge Stransky, of Chicago $500, and Nick Kachovka, on behalf of Greek merchants of Chicago $1,000.

Studebaker Donated

The Smith manager said that Studebaker met him in the Congress Hotel here on the occasion of the Indiana dinner last winter and had stated that he was very much interested in his friend Frank L. Smith.

"He asked me to call at his office which I did and he gave $10,000. Later he gave another $10,000," Moore said.

In making known his decision to give the names of the contributors, Moore said that some of the men for "social, political and business reasons" had requested him not to reveal the contributions.

Moore told the committee that the only obligation imposed on him by Smith in the campaign was that "I was not to obligate him in any way."

Denies A Scendry Story

The Illinois republican national committee man said he knew nothing of the report that Smith managers had offered Charles Scendry of East St. Louis, president of the Illinois Foreign Voters' League, $6,000 for the support of that organization.

"In going through my files, I came across an unanswered letter from Scendry under date of July 23 of this year asking for a conference with me," Moore said. "My secretary received it and threw it in the basket."

The witness added that if the matter had come to his attention he would have told Scendry that Smith already had the support of the foreign voters and so did not need his assistance.

Had Little Back Book

The little black memorandum book to which Moore referred when he first appeared Monday, was handed to the committee. It was in cipher, the witness explaining that he kept it in his desk for noting interviews with downstate leaders who called on him.

Opening the book at random he read one cipher that a leader asked for $2,800 for campaign purposes in his county and was given $600. The committee did not press for all details from the book and Moore was excused after being on the stand half an hour.

U. S. Marshall Talks

James A. White, United States marshal at Murphysboro, testified that he had charge of organization work for Senator McKinley in five downstate counties and that he personally spent $1,475 of his own money for which he was reimbursed. White could not say how much money was raised in the five counties—Alexander, Union, Pulaski, Perry and Randolph. There were local organizations in each of the counties, he added.

Taking up his own county of Jackson, the witness testified there were hired workers at the polls receiving from $5 to $15 each. Seven hundred and fifty dollars of the $1,475 he contributed went for workers and auto hire, while $400 was for stationery and postage.

White exhausted the list of witnesses on hand and the committee adjourned the hearing until next Tuesday to enable Senator Reed to fill week end engagements in Missouri and Senator La Follette to fill such engagements in Wisconsin.

Clement Studebaker, mentioned by Mr. Moore, is president of the Illinois Power and Light Company which about four years ago in a consolidation took over the Illinois Traction System and its affiliated utilities, properties which Senator McKinley had headed for many years. The Senator was made chairman of the board of directors, but nearly two years ago sent in his resignation and never attended the board meetings, George T. Buckingham, general counsel of the company said today.

"Col. Studebaker and Col. Smith have been close personal friends for a long time," Mr. Buckingham said, who told that Studebaker had contributed $20,000 to the Smith senatorial fund.

Recently, it was announced that the North American Company and the utilities interests of Samuel Insull of Chicago, would acquire a stock interest in the Illinois Power & Light Corporation. Mr. Buckingham said Senator McKinley had owned no stock in that company since it was formed and that his position as chairman of the board was an honorary nature.

Insull was the largest single owner.

To Diarm Catholics.

All Catholics in the country are to

After more than a fortnight of attendance on masses, the faithful again today crowded churches, cathe-

KINSHIP—

No woodland paths are strange to me. As towered city streets may be. I am familiar with the ground, And unfused by mingled sound Of stirring leaves and lifting wings Or softly stepping forest things.

No woodland paths are strange, I know. The customs here, how pines bestow Bronze needles on the earth, and how October's amber paints the bough. I know how April strikes the sod With magical divining rod.

I am not kin to any walls, An alien I to granite halls That shall insensibly go down When green again assaults the town. But I am one with flowering dust That hold a flame of life in trust.

Hilda Morris.

Menus for the Family

BY SISTER MARY.

BREAKFAST—Red raspberries with uncooked cereal and thin cream, ginger bread, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—New peas and potatoes, sliced tomatoes, whole wheat bread, strawberry preserves, milk, tea.

DINNER—Stuffed mutton chops, creamed cauliflower, string bean salad, graham bread, green apple sauce, ginger bread, milk, coffee.

If you find it necessary to "stretch" the peas, try the following recipe and you'll decide it's very much worth while and you'll use the dish even if the peas don't need eking out.

Children under six years of age may have the juice of red raspberries but should not be allowed to eat the whole berry on account of the seeds.

New Peas and Potatoes.

Two cups shelled peas, 1 cup diced new potatoes, one-third cup minced onion, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon brown sugar, 1 tablespoon minced mint leaves (optional), 1/2 teaspoon flour.

Melt butter, add onion and cook over a low fire until a pale straw color. Mix sugar and flour thoroughly and sprinkle over onions. Stir with a fork until perfectly blended and add potatoes and peas and mint leaves if convenient. Add boiling water to cover and bring to the boiling point. Cover sauce pan and cook over a low fire for thirty minutes. Keep the water "moving" but not boiling hard. Turn into a hot vegetable dish and serve.

Mrs. Clara Emery Now Mrs. Littleton

Word was received in Amboy Wednesday evening of the marriage of Mrs. Clara E. Emery, formerly Clara Weaver of Pawpaw, to Earl Littleton, formerly of Amboy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littleton of Normal.

The wedding took place at the bride's sister's home at 27 S. West street in Naperville at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, July 28.

Announcement of the marriage was expected to come as a distinct surprise to Amboy friends of the bride as plans for the wedding were not told and there were but few who knew of the approaching matrimonial event.

Mrs. Emery is beloved by a host of Amboy and Dixon friends who have known her over a period of many years. She was widely acquainted during her residence in this city and was greatly admired for her artistic ability for which she has become noted wherever she has gone. She founded the Amboy Flower and Gift shop now owned by the Dishong sisters and was in business in Amboy for about ten years.

The Naperville home at which the wedding ceremony took place Wednesday was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Daisies and pink roses made up the principal flowers used for the decorations. The bride's dress was of beige chiffon with accessories to match.

For the past few years the bride has been in charge of the Chicago office of the Davis Greeting Card company of New York City. She left Amboy about three years ago. Mr. Littleton has a position of great competence with the Peck Candy company.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Littleton will be at home in Bloomington.

All old friends of the bride together with many residents of this community who have known her only a short time join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Littleton years of happiness in their wedded life.

Today's News Around Illinois Briefly Written

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clinton—Earl Durbin of Downs, injured in an automobile accident near Birkbeck Wednesday night, died Thursday night. His companion, Miss Ruby Winstead also of Downs, was instantly killed.

Decatur—Decatur's first heat prostration of the summer came Thursday afternoon, when Gus Sanders was overcome while working in the sun. The temperature was 100.

Danville—Orville Read, 50, farmer of near Piper City, is dead of injuries received Thursday when a team ran away while he was cutting oats, throwing him into the sickle knives of the binding machine.

Bloomington—Now that R. B. Miller has been appointed chief forester for Illinois, a newly created position, his attention will be called to Funk's Grove as an ideal location for one of the proposed state parks.

Bloomington—W. T. Sherman post will send a half dozen or more of the members to Des Moines on September 1 to 24 to attend the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Joliet—William A. Swain, 48 and Mrs. Harold Swain were killed here last night when the automobile in which they were riding struck a street car head-on, while passing over a viaduct. Harold Swain, 19, husband of the dead woman and son of the other victim, was badly cut and lacerated but will live, according to physicians. None of the passengers on the street car was injured, which totally demolished the small coupe and damaged the front of the street car.

Centralla—Diligent search and dragging the waters of Crooked Creek, at the edge of Centralla City, two miles north of here has failed to disclose any body following indications of suicide when plenickers found a man's overall and tie along the bank of the creek and propped against a tree trunk a table upon the cardboard back of which was written in pencilled capital letters the words: "Goodbye, I'm tired of life." The note was unsigned. In the absence of any reports on missing citizens at police headquarters here authorities are drawn to the conclusion that the victim is a transient if there is a victim, or that someone is attempting to put over a hoax.

Chicago—Hiking from New York to San Francisco, Antonio Keopke, 55, arrived here. He is president of a walking club and hopes to complete the trip in 4 months.

Chicago—Steps to acquire a 200 foot right of way for a "super highway" linking Chicago and Milwaukee have been ordered by officials of Illinois and Wisconsin.

PLEADS FOR DOG

Passaic, N. J.,—"Send me to jail but don't shoot my dog." That was the plea of 18-year-old Josephine Grabouise when a judge offered a choice between jail and a fine of $5.00 for failing to obtain a license for her dog. She was escorted to jail, but was released later in the day when a friend paid the fine.

"The son of a gun has got my ball," replied the Scotchman.—New York Sun.

FLAMING YOUTH'S CHANCE.

Flaming youth desiring a place in the business world has an opportunity that is not being taken with companies doing foreign business. This government, which socialists scorn and bolsheviks bark at, has brought about and perpetuated conditions so rare on the face of the earth that international organization are unable to induce men to go to other countries to represent them in trade.

The situation has been presented to the president of the United States, and through that avenue it has come to public notice. It seems, however, that nothing is to be done about it. We can't draft men, as we did when we sent them to France, and the president is interested in making conditions at home still better. The inducement to go abroad then will be still less.

Ordinarily we do not find much change in human nature, but as events pass we seem to have lost the spirit of the adventurer and the spirit of the pioneer. What few adventurers we have seem to have congregated in the cities. Instead of taking chances with an Indian tribe on crossing the plains, they try their staying powers against a rival rum-running gang. Of course we still have with us the adventurer who tries to beat the train to the crossing and the one who makes the hard road his habitat. Our other great adventurers are either in the poolrooms or on the golf courses, depending on financial resources.

Sometimes things are not as they seem. Sometimes a few figures knock out a whole row of popular illusions. Yet, it did seem that the spirit of adventure in the youth of the land had departed when the last call to arms was made. There appeared to be a contrast with the enlistments for the Spanish war. In 1898 the volunteers were turned back. There were too many. In 1917 the national guard companies were drumming a long time before they filled their quotas.

Having in mind the spirit of '98, William Jennings Bryan once said that a million men would spring to arms in the time of emergency. Advocates of preparedness never ceased recalling the manner in which they didn't "spring."

It can not be said that the youth of 1917 was less patriotic than that of twenty years before. Once in, once realizing that this country was in for real war, they were all anxious to "go across."

One circumstance does not prove a situation, but when the business world is seeking young men to go on peaceful missions, money-making missions to other nations, and can not fill its ranks, another circumstance arises to substantiate the suspicion that the spirit of adventure that populated the great west has been disappearing.

Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City bank of New York City, called attention of President Coolidge to the fact that large business concerns have found it difficult to meet the competition of the British throughout the world, because their supply of business missionaries is far short of the demand.

The president lengthened from five minutes to three quarters of an hour an interview with a British delegation to discuss the subject. The findings were that the United States is the real rival of Great Britain in world trade, but the British have regained much that was lost during the war because their young generation has accepted the opportunity to go into all the world with the gospel of British business, while the young American finds life at home the most satisfactory and the most complete.

We can't blame him much. When the showdown comes, in the face of the socialist and the bolshevik, we all join with George M. Cohan in singing of the glorious U. S. A.

Dug an oil well 7000 feet deep in Mexico. If they go any deeper they'll strike French francs.

What this country needs is a sanitarium for men whose daughters have won beauty contests.

All we need to keep cool with Coolidge is a summer camp.

The boss is so absent minded that one day he came to the office instead of going to the golf links.

Moved a 700-pound clock in London. Lots of time on their hands.

Chicago nurse was fired for kissing a patient instead of not.

Can't eat your cake and have it, too, but you can get some more.

In some states grown men wear their coats all summer.

One girl says she will stop smoking if her mother will.

Everything is being blamed for the crime wave except criminals.

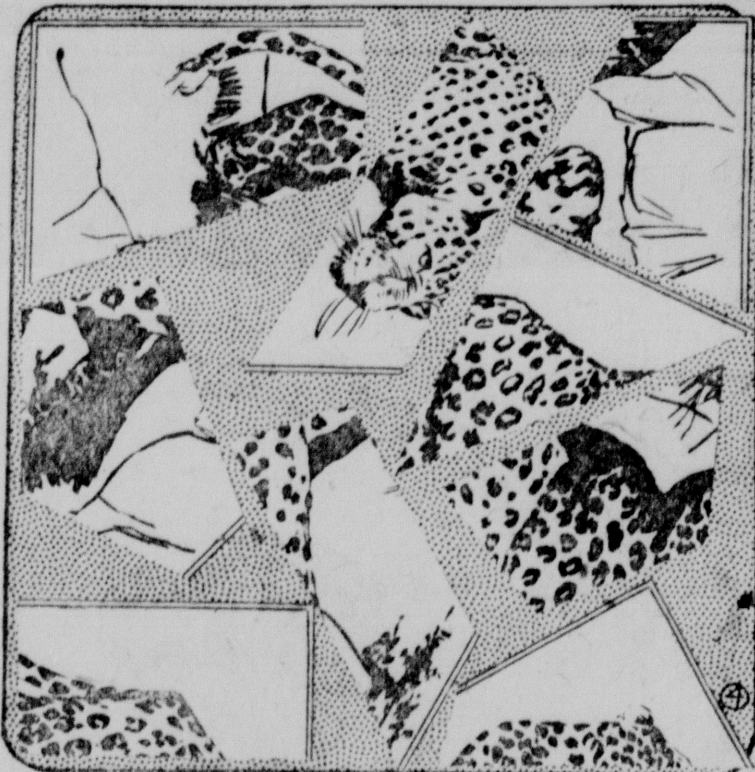

Many a man who says he doesn't chew tobacco smokes nickel cigars.

They think plump women will be back in style, but we don't.

A GIRL OF TODAY

A BAD ADVISER

As we tried to bring her to, there was a noise in the hall and in strode Jen Smith. At the sight of Joan and I in there with Lela so still and white on the pillow, he turned and almost shouted in a rough voice:

"So you have killed her with your demands, Miss Meredith! Well, let me tell you it will do you no good. I can carry on for her. I know that you and Barry were at that road house, and I have the name on that register myself."

I looked at Lela quickly. Was it possible that Providence had let her die and left us in the hands of this bounder?

To my relief and surprise her eyes flew open with a jerk. She had heard the voice of the master of The Circle, the voice that she feared. The voice that made her dance whether she wished to or not.

"What is it, Mr. Smith?" she asked, before her lazy lids drooped again and shut out all expression in her face.

Although her voice was hardly above a whisper, the man heard her.

He rushed over toward the bed. "Don't you believe, Lela, what these dames have been telling you. They have probably been giving you some applesauce trying to make you think they are your friends. But I know all about them. They came to my place for your address. I told them that I didn't have it. I wanted to get to you first, for I wanted to tell you that I was your friend. I wanted to make you understand that they were trying to gyp you. Don't have anything to do with them."

"Give me that piece of paper that Barry cut out of the register. I'll make them pay for it. I'll make them pay enough to keep both of us all the rest of our lives."

It was then that I pushed forward, for I understood that if Lela gave Jen Smith that paper he would bleed Joan all her life.

"Don't give it to him, Mrs. Cornwall. Joan has been telling you the truth. Place the two people together side by side. What has Jen Smith ever done to you except to try and throw you into the arms of any man that seemed to adore you and then take all the money that he could get out of you. You told us not a minute ago that you were ashamed that you had wronged Joan, and you told us that poor Barry's death was your punishment. Let us be your friends, Mrs. Cornwall."

"Yes, Lela, please let me be your friend and I promise you that your baby shall never want for anything."

"Bunk!" said Jen Smith. "Give me the paper or you will wish you had, for these young women won't do anything for you."

Lela Cornwall raised up her eyes slowly and looked straight into Jen's face and said, "I can't give it to you because I haven't got it."

HEALTHGRAMS

A square meal is to the digestive system something far more complex than a four cornered job. With a medley of food thrust unceremoniously upon it that faithful organ has the task of choosing the tiny bits of fat, sugar, iron, magnesium, calcium, sulphur, iodine, potassium and other constituents necessary for the selective nutrition of bones, teeth, hair, muscles, nerves, skin and the various other parts of the body.

If the digestive system used no more discretion about its choice of material for the sundry cells and tissues than man does for satisfying his over-indulged palate the mystery of many ills would be easily solved. Storing too much sugar in the liver, not enough iodine in the thyroid, blocking the teeth of calcium and loading bankruptcy for the unwary merchant. The trade will consume only so much from the various articles on the market so that any surplus becomes a burden. The body is like that. Food, clothing, shelter, work, recreation, rest, must be maintained at a delicate balance in order to produce healthy muscles and minds of the highest efficiency. The hand that feeds the mouth must be directed by the brain that buys the food.

Instinct probably exercises a profound influence over animal life in general but it isn't fair to blame that mysterious power for man's inclination to patronize soda fountains and bootleggers instead of water bottles and the vegetable hucksters. Faints are very much like fables—they cry for what they have been trained to expect.

Keeping cool depends almost as much upon the menu as it does upon the weight of your garments. The fellow who loads up on meat, potatoes, pie, pastry and the like has little grounds for complaining at the July temperature or the conventional habits of man.

There were 1,556 more cases of communicable diseases reported during the first half of this year than in the corresponding period of 1925. For typhoid fever, malaria, smallpox, measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria there were marked declines, the combined decrease in the incidence of these diseases being 6,933 cases. Reports of tuberculosis, influenza, pneumonia and syphilis increased together by a margin of 7,634 cases. No marked variations were observed in the reported prevalence of the other significant diseases.

Ancients' Method of Tempering Steel is Told of by Science

"Heated to the color of the rising sun and then plunged into the body of a Nubian slave" was the secret of the manufacture of the far-famed sword of Damascus, according to officers of the American Society for Steel Treating, which will hold its annual convention in Chicago from Sept. 20 to 24. More than 75,000 persons will attend the meetings and the national Steel and Machine Tool Exposition which will be open at the same time.

The Damascus sword could be bent double and would spring back each time as straight and true as an arrow. The method of its tempering was a secret for ages. Today, members of the Association have devised methods of tempering steel which produce blades that far exceed in temper, resilience and ductility the famous swords of the ancients.

The exposition, the largest industrial show held in America, will demonstrate the latest inventions and machinery for the production, treatment and fabrication of steel products from the giant rolling machines, which shave off a half inch layer of cold steel, down to the most delicate microscopes and other scientific instruments.

IN NEW YORK

New York—Scattered notes from an afternoon's ramble about Manhattan:

Old pretzel salesmen resting from their day's weary plodding.

They gather in the shadows of late afternoon on benches in Seward Park.

About them prance dirty faced children.

Children with the faces of the world, smeared by the dirt of New York streets.

The sad little stocks of pretzels rest in rows along the bench.

Beard ed heads sag wearily against soiled vests.

A venerable son of Palestine takes off his heavy shoes and rubs his feet across the matted grass.

They sit grumbling over the day's trade.

Times have changed.

Everybody handles pretzels now. Drugstores, soda fountains, corner stands. And yet someone must carry on the colorful trade of pretzel hawking. And only a few dimes to show at the end of the hot day's tramp.

The Aquitania lying at pier.

And all about are lighters and barges like so many green and red and black waterbugs.

Skattering in and out.

Just alongside the ocean giant a barge of brightest green.

Winches squeak, cranes sing a weird, strained chorus, giant chains rattle.

All the noises of a great liner loading for sea.

The little green barge huddles close.

A plump, ruddy-faced woman emerges from the tiny square room atop the barge.

She has a mouthful of clothespins and, quite oblivious to the surroundings, begins to hang up the day's wash.

Then she sits down, as unconcerned as any housewife on a farmyard porch and begins darning socks.

A few moments later she reappears with a sprinkling can and begins to water a little box of bedraggled geraniums.

All about is the bustle of getting to sea.

One pier away the liner Columbus slips out.

The green barge rocks clumsily.

Sirens shriek and the deafening bass of a dozen whistles sounds.

The mistress of the barge does not so much as look up.

She is too busy snipping dead leaves from the flower box.

All is bustle along the piers.

Tourist travel overseas is at its height.

Taxicabs form an endless pageant of yellow, red, gold, white.

Crowds jam the docks waving and shouting at friends aboardship.

As usual there is the man who arrived too late and who stands self-consciously holding the great bouquet of flowers he intended for "the girl friend".

Frantic voiced hucksters are making last appeals.

There's no chance of forgetting anything.

The scores of pier tradesmen see to that.

Flower vendors, book vendors, peddlers with trays of trinkets hung to their necks.

And the little shops aboard the liners where one may get a last-minute farewell gift.

And pay well for the last-minute service.

But the ruddy-faced woman on the barge has seen all this so many times.

She has her "home duties" to attend.

And home is a little railed-off coop atop a barge, with a three-foot flower box and a crippled rocking chair on the deck.

PECKINPAUGH IS LIKELY TO PLAY ON YANKS AGAIN

Senators Ask Waivers on Veteran Shortstop; Huggins Bids

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Roger Peckinpaugh, veteran shortstop of the Washington Senators, who has also played with Cleveland, Boston and New York in the American League, again is sought by the Yanks.

Washington has asked waivers and Miller Huggins has put in a bid for Peck. Why the Yanks now seek Peck is a mystery for the team with Koenig at short, yesterday, won its eighth straight by beating the St. Louis Browns for the third consecutive time 10-7. Koenig fielded faultlessly. The pennant virtually is assured if the Yanks win half of their remaining 56 games, although Cleveland is keeping pace several notches behind.

Thirteen singles and a home run by Gehrig gave the New Yorkers yesterday's game. Cleveland took its third straight from the Athletics 3-2, Buckeye and Miller pitching shut-out ball. Washington required 11 innings to stop the White Sox 7-3. Blankenship of Chicago suffering a broken thumb on his right hand in attempt to cut down a smash from Myer's bat. The Senators made a four run rally in the seventh for the verdict.

Boston ousted Detroit, but lost the decision 6-5, the Tigers bunching their blows in two innings.

Rain postponed all games in the National League.

NEW YORK GAINS LEAD IN EXPORT IN 1st QUARTER

Illinois Shows Slight Loss Over Preced- ing Year

Washington, July 30—(AP)—Although showing a decline of nearly $8,000,000 from the figures for the same period last year, New York, with $125,510,971 in exports, retained the lead from Texas in the outgoing merchandise shipments during the first quarter of 1925, the commerce department today announced.

Texas exports declined nearly $121,000,000 to a total of $128,873,613 for the quarter due chiefly to decreased shipments of cotton and lower prices for that commodity.

Total exports for the quarter were valued at $1,098,839,243 as compared with $1,255,769,000 for the first quarter of 1925 and $1,381,446,318 for the last quarter of that year.

Of the first ten states in the export column only four, Michigan, California, Ohio, and Virginia showed gains while New York, Texas, Pennsylvania, Louisiana, New Jersey and Illinois suffered losses.

Illinois exports for the first quarter of 1926 as compared with the corresponding period last year were $22,829,351 and $53,472,173; those of Wisconsin $19,947,549 and $17,056,828; Indiana $17,243,122 and $16,405,876; Missouri $11,794,071 and $14,424,345; while those of Iowa were $9,064,093 and $10,331,150.

TO CLOSE SWIM CLASS

Next week will be the last week of the Non-Member Beginners' Class in swimming at the Y.M.C.A. The boys know on which of the three days they are supposed to come and it is hoped that everyone will be present so that all those who have learned to swim may get credit for it.

Yesterday's class was a first-class exhibition of water stunts. The members, nearly all of whom learned to swim this summer, were not only proving their ability by swimming distances in different fashions but by diving. Yesterday was the first day that much attention had been given to diving and the progress made was really surprising.

The boys thoroughly enjoyed the game and the swimming period which followed, after which personal inspection was held at 5:30 o'clock. The evening was given over to a pepy Camp Fire in the Council Circle, at which songs were sung, stories were read and a number of stunts were given. Taps were sounded at 9:30 p. m.

POISON LIQUOR TOLL INCREASES FIGURES SHOW

Twenty Per Cent In- crease Over Same Period Last Year

New York, N. Y.—Deaths from alcoholism totalled 398 during the first six months of 1926 and increased twenty per cent year according to statistics compiled by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company whose 17,000,000 industrial policy holders constitute a reliable cross-section of the industrial population. The death rate was 2.6 per 100,000. This can be compared with 3.0 for the corresponding period in 1925, and with rates of 3.1, 3.4 and 2.6 in the same period of 1924, 1923 and 1922 respectively. This is the highest death rate recorded among this class in the United States and Canada for the first half of any year since 1917.

This brings the total of deaths from alcoholism among Metropolitan Industrial policyholders to 1,965 since January 1st, 1922. Of these deaths, 1,943 occurred among approximately 16,000,000 persons living in the United States, while only twenty-two were recorded among approximately 1,000,000 persons living in Canada. Most of the few deaths, have occurred among approximately 350,000 policyholders in the Province of Ontario.

Deaths from cirrhosis of the liver, a disease closely associated with alcoholism, numbered 598, which corresponded to a death rate of 6.9 per 100,000. This may be compared with 5.48 deaths and a rate of 6.7 for the corresponding period of 1925. The rate was 6.0 for the first half of 1924.

Deaths from wood and denatured alcohol poisoning numbered ten during this six months period. There were fifteen and eight deaths respectively from this cause during the same months of 1925 and 1924. Deaths from this cause, according to the insurance company's Statistical Bureau, are unquestionably less frequent than they were in 1920 and 1921. Such deaths, however, were comparatively rare occurrences prior to 1920.

Mortality from alcoholism has a seasonal incidence, according to a check made, by quarters, over a long series of years, by Metropolitan Life statisticians. While such seasonal incidence is not very pronounced, it is nevertheless a fact that more deaths, on an average, occur during the first quarter of the year than in any other of the three month periods.

Many "Repeaters" in State Auto Licenses

Springfield—Most expensive automobiles have the smallest license plates. Especially in the first 10,000 licenses, reports from the state Automobile Show Department show. Most of the number from no. 1, owned by Sidney Gorman, father of the Automobile Law, to 20,000 are repeaters, renewed by the same owner each year. The association of the motorist with their car numbers has long been a common practice. Sidney Smith creator of Andy and Mutt, with his famous 348; John McCutcheon, cartoonist, and his number 19, and L. L. Emerson, Secretary of State's two numbers 3 and 23 are among the most prominent ones. 13, bane of the superstitious, decorates a life insurance agent's car in Springfield. Another local number owned by the same man for years is that of 5,000 belonging to Henry W. Clendenen, Editor in Chief of the Illinois State Register. Florence Pullman Lowden, wife of ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden, now living at Smississippi Farm, Oregon, still owns license plate No. 99. Margaret Better look out for him. Flashes of Life

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
BRONXVILLE, N. Y.—One successful method of courting is to fly to a girl's house and drop letters from the sky every morning. Lieut. King, army aviator of Mitchell Field, will tell the world it is. He is to marry Miss Maxine Stogger.

PHILADELPHIA.—Far be it from the champion fish, Johnny Weissmuller, to be married Friday, Aug. 13. He's had the date changed. Now he and Miss Lillian Wruck of Chicago are going to wait till some quiet night and slip away and be married. Then perhaps he will teach her to swim.

PRAGUE.—The paint on the back of a big car in which Mary and Doug have been touring is all scratched up. An autograph hunter chased them so hard that there was a collision.

DORNOCH, SCOTLAND.—The

stork has left a fourth grand child of the late Andrew Carnegie. It is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Miller. Mrs. Miller, the former Margaret Carnegie is the iron master's only child.

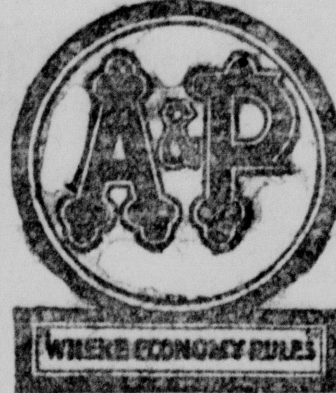

NEW YORK.—The stork seems to have lost a race for American citizenship. Mrs. Catherine Pfeffernik, American born wife of a Rumanian, who lives in Argentine, became a mother on the British steamship Vesuvius at Quarantine. She made the voyage in the hope that the baby would arrive on American soil, preferably Allentown, Pa., where her parents live.

Avoid Poorly Balanced Breakfasts

Start the day with Quaker Oats—food that "stands by" you.

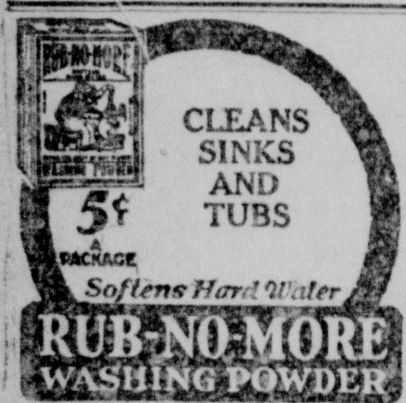

If you feel tired, hungry, "fidgety," 1 hour before lunch, don't jump to the conclusion of poor health. Thousands have unenergetic mornings because they start the day with wrong breakfasts.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you. Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

NEWS of the CHURCHES

Good Thoughts for Good People

Peace is to be served only through the promotion of good will, which the coming of Christ Jesus foretold. As divine Love transforms hate, as evil gives way to unfolding Truth, the kingdoms of this world will go down before the kingdoms of our Lord, and mutual good will supplant evil in the thoughts of men. Love and hate cannot occupy the same mental areas at the same time.

You may assuredly find perfect peace, if you are resolved to do that which your Lord has plainly required—and content that He should indeed require no more of you—than to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with Him.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Peace will come when there is realization that only under a reign of law, based on righteousness and supported by the religious convictions of the brotherhood of man, can there be any hope of a complete and satisfying life. Parchment will fall; the sword will fall; it is only the spiritual nature of man that can be triumphant.

Let the bugles sound the truce of God to the whole world forever.

Let us have peace.

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest; for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways: To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

His court is much less magnificent than those maintained by his predecessors, and he has grown into great esteem with the people of his province.

BLIND, KILLS MAN
Pittsburg, Kas.—Although blind and having only one arm, Roy Atkinson fought and killed his stepfather. The young man said his stepfather attacked him because he refused to beg, and that he armed himself with the only available weapon, a window weight. The stepfather had a razor.

CHAMPION

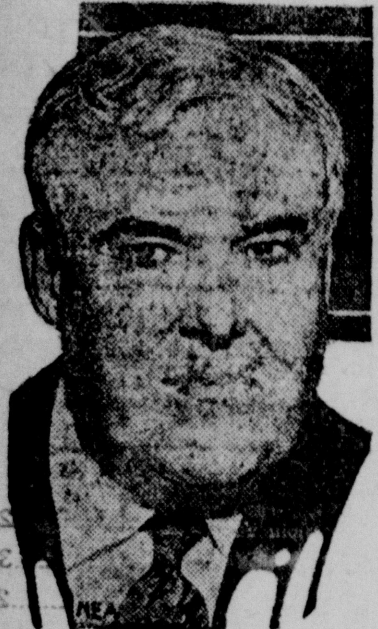

J. B. Bumgardner, 14, is marbles champion of El Paso, Tex., for the second year in succession. He's a southpaw, and believes his unusual style of shooting will carry him through to the national championship at the Atlantic City tournament this summer.

Honored

—NEA, Cleveland Bureau Ohio State University has conferred the degree of practical electrical engineer on J. E. Lincoln of Cleveland because of his constructive electrical research and his development of the stable arc electric welder. Lincoln was forced by illness to leave Ohio State in his senior year, back in 1906.

Once a Cub

Ralph Van Vechten quit his job as a reporter on a Cedar Rapids (Ia.) paper 47 years ago and became a bank clerk—somewhat against his will, as he wanted to be a writer. Now he is president of the State Bank of Chicago—and glad he made the change. He is a brother of Carl Van Vechten, novelist.

Saw Aimee

D. E. Pape, automobile dealer of Tucson, Ariz., threw a sensation into the Los Angeles grand jury's investigation of the "kidnapping" of Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, by testifying that he saw Mrs. McPherson in Agua Prieta, Mex., the night before her reappearance after her supposed imprisonment.

Misunderstood

The phrase, "we expect a large majority for the Pepper-Fisher ticket" in Police Superintendent Peter Paul Walsh's order to Pittsburgh detectives directing them to report election returns did not mean he expected them to work for the ticket, he testified before the senate committee investigating the Pennsylvania primary. "You understand the English language, don't you?" snorted Chairman Reed, of Missouri.

Re-Elected

For the 33d consecutive time Fred C. Robinson of Chicago has been elected grand secretary of the Elks. He's one of the smallest men in the order, standing only four feet tall, but he's one of the best known, too.

Bird Talks

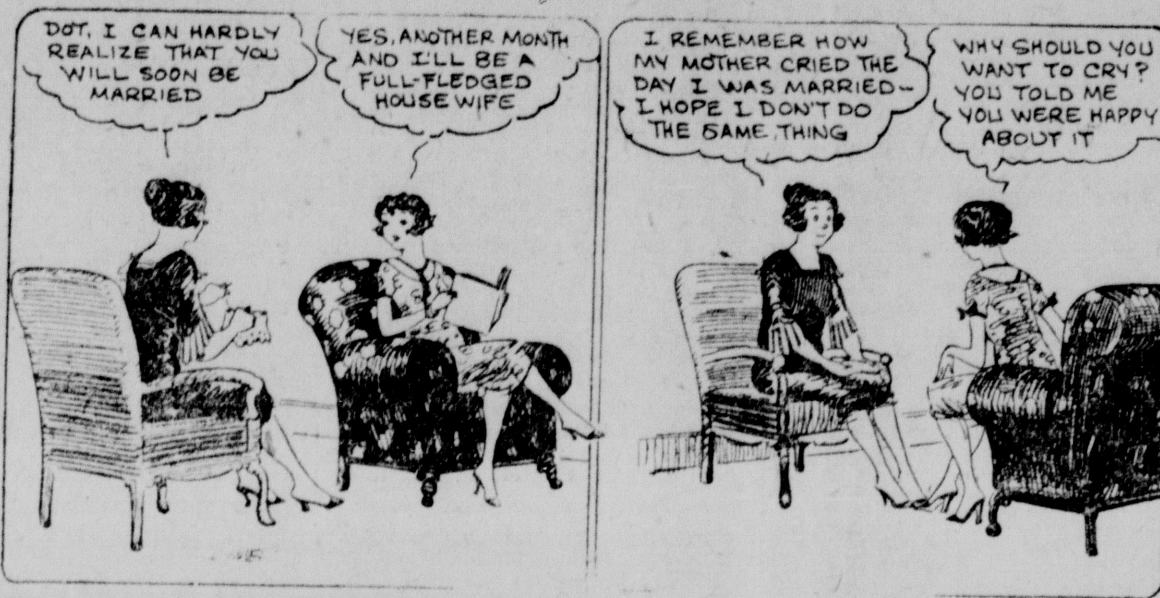

This bird is "Mac," a baraboda, or sacred bird of Egypt, who can talk as well as any parrot that ever asked for a cracker. "Mac" can't fly—baraboda, it is said, have to be fabulously old before they learn—but he can hop 'most anywhere. His favorite food is dark beer and hamburger cheese. He's shown here on the head of Miss Billy McNary of Sacramento, Calif.

Baby Queen

Miss Nellie Martin of Hagerstown, Md., is no baby, but she has been elected queen of the annual baby parade that five states will stage at Wildwood, N. J., this summer. She was the unanimous choice of the committee in charge.
